

The Eye – a fairytale

The Eye wasn't just a normal eye. He was a great and very intelligent eye, but also he was rigorous and perfectionist.

One day the Eye was really bored and thought, that it would be good to do something interesting. The Eye was lonely because of his disposition and couldn't talk to someone or simply play in some games. He was so intelligent that thought up a companion to spend time together. The Eye started to work. After one week a Star arisen. She was beautiful and lightened every, even the darkest night. But the Eye wasn't happy with her, due to her vanity and curiosity to discover the other world. The Eye fall into an anger and burnt the Star. There remained only a Stardust.

Firstly the Eye regretted his decision, which he took in emotions. He was crying a lot. Then in his mind occurred some changes. He started to think more about his feelings before he was going to do something. He also became more patient, sensitive and merciful. He learnt how to forgive and after some time longed for the Star. He realized that he loved her, but it was too late. He had only the Stardust. He wanted to make a friendship with it, but it wasn't alive . He was begging and asking but without result. He was trying to revive the Stardust, but it failed. The Eye noticed, that although the Star is dead, she is alive in his heart and he still loves her, so he can love the Stardust too.

It took many years, but the Eye learnt to love the Stardust and he still does. Although it stabs him and it hurts, he doesn't give up, because he knows that one day the Stardust will change into even more beautiful Star.
